- place it away from electronic appliances such as televisions, microwave ovens, radios, personal computers, wireless devices or other cordless phones.
- avoid facing radio frequency transmitters, such as external antennas of mobile phone cell stations.

11.   TROUBLESHOOTING

If you have difficulty with your phone, please try the suggestions listed below.

Problem	Solutions
My telephone does not work at all.	• Make sure the battery is installed and charged correctly.
	• For optimum daily performance, return the handset to the telephone base after use.
	• Make sure the power adapter is securely plugged into an outlet not controlled by a wall switch.
	• Make sure the telephone line cord is plugged firmly into the telephone base and the telephone wall jack.
	• Unplug the electrical power to the telephone base. Wait for approximately 15 seconds, then plug it back in. Allow up to one minute for the handset and telephone base to synchronize.
	• Remove and re-insert the battery. If that still does not work, it might be necessary to purchase a new battery.
	• Disconnect the telephone base from the telephone wall jack and plug in a working telephone. If the other telephone does not work, the problem is probably in the wiring or the telephone service. Call your telephone service provider.
Low battery shows on screen.	• Place the handset in the telephone base for recharging.
	• Remove and re-install the battery and use it until fully depleted, then recharge the handset in the telephone base.
	• If the above measures do not solve the problem, replace the battery.
The battery do not charge in the handset or the handset battery do not accept charge.	• Make sure the handset is placed in the telephone base correctly.
	• Remove and reinstall the battery, then charge for up to 16 hours.
	• Purchase a new battery.

There is interference during a telephone conversation. My calls fade out when I am using the handset.	• The handset may be out of range. Move it closer to the telephone base. • If you subscribe to high-speed Internet service (digital subscriber line - DSL) through your telephone line, you must install a DSL filter between the telephone base and the telephone wall jack. The filter prevents noise and caller ID problems caused by DSL interference. Please contact your DSL service provider for more information about DSL filters. • Appliances or other cordless telephones plugged into the same circuit as the telephone base can cause interference • Try moving the appliance or telephone base to another outlet. • Other electronic products may cause interference to your cordless telephone. Install your telephone as far away as possible from the following electronic devices: wireless routers, radios, radio towers, pager towers, cellular telephones, digital telephones, intercoms, room monitors, televisions, VCRs, personal computers, kitchen appliances, and other cordless telephones. • If your telephone is plugged in with a modem or a surge protector, plug the telephone (or modem/surge protector) into a different location. If this doesn't solve the problem, re-locate your telephone or modem farther apart from each other, or use a different surge protector. • The location of your telephone base can impact the performance of your cordless phone. For better reception, install the telephone base in a centralized location within your home or office, away from walls or other obstructions. In many environments, elevating the telephone base improves overall performance. • Disconnect the telephone base from the telephone wall jack and plug in a corded telephone. If calls are still not clear, the problem is probably in the wiring or telephone service. • Contact your telephone service provider (charges might apply). • If the other telephones in your home are having the same problem, the problem is in the wiring or telephone service. • Contact your telephone service provider (charges may apply).

Common cure for electronic equipment.	If the telephone is not responding normally, put the handset in the telephone base. If it does not respond, try the following (in the order listed): • Disconnect the power to the telephone base. • Disconnect the battery on the handset. • Wait a few minutes before connecting power to the telephone base. • Re-install the battery and place the handset in the telephone base. • Wait for the handset to synchronize with the telephone base. Allow up to one minute for this to take place.
